

About FieldVu Mobile

Get complete and instant visibility on everything happening in the field. FieldVu Mobile is a web-based, off-line field data capture tool that gives industrial field service companies the power to collect and transmit data on labor, equipment and materials usage from the field and in real-time.

FieldVu Mobile has less overhead and can be quickly and easily rolled-out to the field. The electronic field ticketing enables customers to review a field ticket, sign off electronically right in the field, and be confident it's accurate.

Capture and Transmit Field Data

Improve your Profitability

With FieldVu Mobile, management can see what's going on in the field instantly, enabling the quick response time needed to grow your business profitably. If costs for labor, equipment and materials begin to exceed budget, your client can be informed immediately, approving the change before receiving a higher-than-expected and unwelcome invoice. In short, you'll improve your cash flow – you'll get paid for your work weeks sooner and you can manage budgets more easily.

Full Integration

FieldVu Mobile is an important step in the flow of information within your company. It seamlessly integrates with your ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) business processes end-to-end. Your data moves seamlessly into FieldVu Mobile and then back into your accounting system. This allows for more accurate invoicing, more efficient payroll processing and improved inventory control; all of which means great operational efficiencies for your company.
